MINUTES:

Minutes of the meeting held on March 5, 2018 were accepted as written.

COMMUNICATIONS & ANNOUNCEMENTS: None

LIAISON REPORTS:

AARP:

Gerrie Bishop reported on the activities of the chapter. Denise Weeks attended the March meeting to talk about the Age Friendly Communities initiative in Glastonbury. Elections were held to fill vacant positions.

POLICE DEPARTMENT: None.

HUMAN SERVICES:

Durlene Mikkelson updated the group on the activities of the department. (Report attached)

OLD BUSINESS:

Accreditation Update:

Durlene reported that the re-accreditation binder had been reviewed at the national level and that a site visit by the peer reviewer will hopefully take place in June.

Age Friendly Community Update:

Durlene reported that the town manager requested a few changes to the draft documents which she made. The revised documents were returned to the town manager and will be sent out after final review. Durlene agreed to provide commission members with copies of the final documents.

NEW BUSINESS:

Aquatic Center Initiative:

Denise reported that she had attended the presentation of the group at the Senior Center Lunch & Learn and felt that the majority of the seniors in attendance were not in favor of the aquatic center initiative.
