Dear Mr. Johnson:

Thank you for the recent grant of $5,000.00, which will help support Interval House's services for residents of Glastonbury who experience domestic violence.

Interval House works tirelessly to help women and children who experience physical, psychological, and emotional abuse at the hands of a domestic partner. Through our 24-hour hotline, emergency shelter, safety planning and counseling, and court advocacy, women in crisis are given a safe place to stay and the tools to forge ahead to a better life. Interval House's support groups, children's programming, and community education throughout the Greater Hartford area provide additional resources to prevent and break the cycle of abuse. And all of this is thanks in part to your support.

Because towns like Glastonbury continue to partner with us, we have been able to provide services to nearly 250,000 women and children since 1977. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you would like to learn more about how your town's support truly makes a difference. I can be reached at 860-838-8450.

Sincerely,

Mary-Jane Foster
President and CEO
