Virtual Cultural and Travel Programs

Lifelong Learning: The Great Tours: Ireland and Northern Ireland

Friday Afternoons 12:00 pm July 9 – September 24, 2021

Presented by Professor Marc C. Conner, Ph.D.

Ireland is one of the most enchanting places in the world to visit. Split between the independent Republic of Ireland and the British Northern Ireland, the Emerald Isle is home to breathtaking natural scenery; world-renowned artistic and cultural achievements; and a mysterious, passionate—and sometimes turbulent—history. From the spectacular vistas of the Cliffs of Moher to the hallowed stage of the Abbey Theatre, a tour of this magical island rewards even armchair travelers with a unique array of historical, cultural, and scenic delights.

Lifelong Learning: Discovering Your Roots:

An Introduction to Genealogy

Friday Afternoons 12 pm October 8 - December 3, 2021

Presented by Professor John Philip Colletta, Ph.D.

Genealogy is an enjoyable avocation, but it's much more than that. It's a journey of self-discovery. The more you learn about who your ancestors were, the more you learn about who you are. Few activities are as personally rewarding and exciting.

"It Happened in Quarantine"

February 4th, 2021 was our 60th wedding anniversary. It was a beautiful day and our daughter's celebratory plans for a big party of family and friends had fallen through because of COVID. Marty and I received Ecards that were wonderful. We read them with such joy but otherwise we were alone. The night before we had reminisced of those early days in Coney Island, how I had picked him up on the beach when I was just 15yrs old by walking passed his lifeguard chair to catch his attention. I had bought a leopard skin bikini for just this purpose. I caught his eye and those ensuing summer days were great. My mother made him the best lunches and I took them to his lifeguard chair and waited for his break so we could have lunch together. We watched the boats go by and talked about how some day he would have his own sailboat to cruise the beautiful waters...the wish of a 17yr. old boy. At night, we walked the boardwalk in Coney Island, sat on a bench and looked out at the ocean, shared knishes and hot dogs at Nathan's, rode the parachute and visited Steeplechase for the best rides. It was wonderful!

We married 4 yrs. later on February 4th, 1961 but because of a blizzard in Brooklyn, Mayor Wagner had cancelled all activities and our wedding was called off. My grandmother, who lived in an upstairs apartment, said it would be unlucky to cancel the wedding and so it was held in my parent's three-room apartment in the building in Coney Island where we lived. Everyone on the 4th floor opened up their apartments for all who braved that snowstorm in their boots and snow pants. A bed sheet served as the chuppah or altar and was held up with broomsticks. My father found a rabbi that morning whose religion prevented him from marrying us with an "engraved" ring and so we used a cigar band instead. My mother-in-law played a 78-speed record of "Because" sung by Mario Lanza on our phonograph player. It was a wedding that we and all who attended, would never forget!

Now it was our special 60th anniversary day. What could we do in these challenging times to make it a day to remember? We decided to don our masks, keep our distance, stay pretty much to ourselves and hope for the best as we took the ferry to Fisher's Island. We spent our special day alone but we looked out onto the water, walked the beaches and quiet streets, had sandwiches from home like the ones my mother used to make, and brought back souvenirs of sea glass and drift wood. We saw no one except for one another and it was a day we will always remember. We had spent all of our past vacations on a sailboat just as Marty had wished for so long ago as he sat on the Coney Island beach looking out over the water. Two daughters and five grandchildren later, we all have fond memories of the days we spent sailing together. We remembered our cruises along the Eastern seaboard, to Maine and Nova Scotia.

In the midst of this pandemic, now 60 years after that wedding in my three-room apartment, we returned to the sea in the best way we knew how. Under the circumstances, Fishers Island was such a good choice and Marty and I spent a day to remember, renewing our memories and renewing our love for one another.

Special Thanks to our judges: Lisa Rouleau and Monica Gardner
