VOTER REGISTRATION INFO

Each year, the Registrars of Voters (ROVs) are required to conduct a review of the voting lists. Based on information obtained from the U.S. Postal Service, the ROVs mail letters to voters to confirm that listed addresses are current. These letters were mailed in January. Upon receipt, we ask voters to please review the information and return their response in the enclosed, postage-paid envelope to aid in this process. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

POLICE DEPT. SURVEY

The Glastonbury Police Department (GPD) is seeking feedback on the quality of service we provide to the public, and we're encouraging community members to respond to a satisfaction survey. GPD staff take great pride in providing quality, professional service to all community members, and we want to ensure that we are being responsive to community needs. Your input is invaluable in helping us improve and enhance our services, and plan for the future. Please take a few moments to complete the survey online here or scan the QR code with your mobile device.

NEW DIRECTORS

Over recent months, the Town of Glastonbury has welcomed several new Directors. For many of these positions, the Directors held the position for more than 30 years, and we appreciate the dedication and many years of service of these valued individuals. With their departure, the Town is pleased to introduce the following new professionals to the management team:

Mike Manfre, Superintendent of Sanitation, Refuse, and Recycling - Mike joined the Town's Wastewater and Refuse/Recycling Department this past September. Mike holds a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Maine, and a Class IV Operator certification through CT DEEP. Prior to joining the Glastonbury team, Mike served on the Water Pollution Control Authority in Vernon, CT and as Operations Manager for the Mattabassett District in Cromwell.

Keri Rowley, Director of Finance and Administrative Services - Keri has over 13 years of experience in municipal finance and accounting. Prior to joining the Glastonbury team, Keri worked for the Town of Bloomfield Finance department for many years, serving as their Director of Finance for the last four years. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting and is active in the New England States Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA).

Gina Consiglio, Purchasing Agent - Gina joined the Town in early December 2022. She previously worked for the City of New Haven, with experience in all areas of the city's purchasing assignments. Gina holds a Masters of Business Administration with a focus on project management and leadership, as well as a Bachelors of Arts degree from Albertus Magnus College.

Shelley Caltagirone, Director of Planning and Land Use Services - Shelley came onboard in mid-January and has relocated from San Francisco, where she worked in the city's planning department for over 15 years. Her vast experience includes design and environmental review, and policy/action initiatives. She has also worked as a Historic Preservation Planner. Shelley holds a Master's Degree from U-PENN and Bachelor's Degree from the University of Virginia.

Amy McCue, Library Director - At the end of February, Amy will join the Town as Library Director, following the retirement of long-tenured Director Barbara Bailey. Amy has over 16 years of experience in Library Science, most recently serving as Director for the Town of Granby. Amy has a Master's Degree in Library & Information Sciences and a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and Sociology.

Please join us in welcoming these experienced and knowledgeable Directors.
