A significant financial interest or beneficial interest presents a conflict of interest that is incompatible with the proper discharge of official responsibilities in the public interest if the official, employee or consultant has reason to believe or expect that he/she will obtain, secure or advance such interest by reason of his/her actions in performance or nonperformance of his/her official responsibilities.

An official, employee or consultant does not have a significant financial interest or beneficial interest that is incompatible with the proper discharge of his/her official responsibilities in the public interest if the interest accrues to such individual as a member of a profession, occupation, or group to no greater extent than it accrues to any other member of the profession, occupation, or group with which he/she is affiliated as set forth in G.S. §7-148h(b).

Sec. 2-65. - Disclosure and disqualification.

(a) Any official, employee or consultant who has a conflict of interest, significant financial interest or beneficial interest, direct or indirect, in any contract, transaction or decision within the purview of his/her official responsibilities shall disclose that conflict of interest in accordance with section 2-65(c)(1) through (6). Such disclosure shall disqualify the official, employee or consultant from participation in the matter, transaction, or decision.

(b) No official, employee or consultant shall appear on behalf of any private person or party before any agency in connection with any cause, proceeding, application or other matter in which he/ she has a significant financial interest or beneficial interest without first disclosing such interest to the agency, which shall record such disclosure in the record of the agency's proceeding.

(c) If there is an uncertainty whether an official, employee or consultant has a conflict of interest, significant financial interest or beneficial interest that could disqualify that individual from participation in a matter, such individual shall disclose such possible conflict of interest to the following:

(1) For an official who is a member of an elective or appointive board, commission, committee, or authority to the particular agency of which such official is a member.

(2) For town employees and officials appointed by the town manager to town manager.

(d) The appropriate authority to which the disclosure is made shall make an appropriate record of such disclosure and shall recommend to the official, employee or consultant making the report whether such official, employee or consultant should abstain from participating in the transaction or decision to which the possible conflict of interest relates and whatever other appropriate action should be taken.

(e) Any such questions concerning a possible conflict of interest may be referred to the Commission for an advisory opinion.

Sec. 2-66. - Incompatible employment and activities.

(a) No official or employee shall engage in or accept private employment or render services when the employment or services: (1) are incompatible with the proper discharge of the official duties of the official or employee; or (2) would tend to impair independence of judgment or action by the official or employee in the performance of that individual's official duty. No consultant shall engage in employment or render services for interests other than the town when such employment or services: (1) are incompatible with the proper discharge of his/her consulting duties on behalf of the town; or (2) would tend to impair the independence of the consultant's judgment or action on the matter for which the consultant has been engaged by the town.

(b) No former official, employee or consultant shall appear on behalf of any person or other entity before any agency with which he/she previously was employed or affiliated for a period of one (1) year after the termination of his/her public service or employment; provided, however, that such an individual may be permitted to make such an appearance upon receipt of a favorable prior advisory opinion by the Ethics Commission following its review of the individual's written application and relevant facts.

(c) No former official, employee or consultant shall appear on behalf of any person or other entity before any agency in regard to a matter in which that individual previously participated in the course of his/her official responsibilities for a period of one (1) year after the termination of his/her public service or employment; provided, however, that such an individual may be permitted to make such an appearance upon receipt of a favorable advisory opinion by the Ethics Commission.

(d) Subsections (a), (b) and (c) of this section shall not prohibit any current or former official, employee or consultant from appearing before any agency on his/her own behalf. To avoid an actual or perceived conflict, officials are strongly discouraged from appearing before the agency on which they are a member or officer, absent extenuating circumstances, unless s/he has received a prior favorable advisory opinion by the Ethics Commission prior to appearing.

(e) Nothing in the Code shall be interpreted to authorize conduct restricted or prohibited by any provision of the Connecticut General Statutes including, but not limited to, G.S. §§ 8-11, 8-21, and 22a-42(c) that restrict conduct of members of municipal zoning and planning authorities and members of wetlands and watercourses boards or commissions.

(f) To avoid even the appearance of impropriety or creation of a situation that would be contrary to the declared policy and purpose of the Code, an official, not otherwise restrained by the Code, shall exercise care when appearing before other agencies and shall disclose whether s/he is appearing in his/her official capacity or as a private citizen.

Sec. 2-67. - Penalty for violation.

A failure to comply with the Code shall be considered grounds for censure, reprimand, suspension, demotion, removal, or dismissal of officials, employees and consultants as applicable. The remedies and procedures specified in applicable statutory and Charter provisions, personnel rules, contract grievance rules, or other work rules, policies and procedures, shall be followed in the enforcement of this section.

Sec. 2-68. - Acknowledgment form.

(a) The Town Clerk shall provide a copy of the Code and Town Charter Section 1101 to every official consultant within sixty (60) days of date that s/he begins his/her official duties. Every town official shall sign and file with the Town Clerk an acknowledgment form indicating his/her awareness of the provisions of this Code and of Section 1101 of the Town Charter.

(b)Each consultant shall sign and file with the Town Clerk an acknowledgment form indicating his/her awareness of the provisions of this Code, and Section 1101 of the Town Charter on or before being retained by the town, board of education, or other agency.

a.Any current, former or prospective Town of Glastonbury employee, official, or consultant may request an advisory opinion from the Commission as to whether conduct by that person or entity would violate the Code. Any current town official also may request an advisory opinion concerning the activities of any department over which he or she has jurisdiction or board or Commission on which he or she serves.

The form must contain a statement setting forth the advice requested and the relevant facts known to the individual making the request so that the Commission can reasonably be expected to understand the nature of the request. The individual making the request must sign it.

c. Requests must be addressed in a sealed envelope to the Commission, c/o the Glastonbury Town Clerk, 2155 Main Street, Town Hall, Glastonbury, Connecticut, who will date stamp, but not open, the envelope and forward same promptly to the chair or vice chair of the Commission. On the day said request is received by the Town Clerk, the Town Clerk or his or her representative shall notify the chair or vice chair of the Commission, or both, of same.

d. The date the request is received by the Town Clerk will mark the official date of receipt for purposes of deadlines for decisions.

(2) Proceedings.

a. The chair will present the request to the Commission at its next regular meeting for which no agenda has been filed yet with the town clerk or at a special meeting called by the Commission chair or vice chair.

b. The Commission will meet to review the request. At that time, it may decide to: (1) seek additional information, (2) create a subcommittee of at least two (2) Commission members to make a recommendation for consideration by the full Commission, (3) hold an informal hearing to receive comments from the individual who requested the advisory opinion and/or from the public, (4) investigate the relevant facts and issues in order to render the advisory opinion, and/or (5) treat the matter as an inquiry under subsection (c) hereof.

(3) Decisions.

a. Advisory opinions will be made by a majority of Commission members voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

b. The Commission will issue an advisory opinion as expeditiously as possible but in any event within ninety (90) days from the day it first considers the request. The Commission may extend the time for decision for up to an additional thirty (30) days.

c. All advisory opinions must be in writing and communicated to the individual making the request.

d. The Commission may decline to render an advisory opinion if (1) the subject matter is not covered by the Code, (2) the known facts are incomplete or incorrect and the omissions or misstatements are material to the advisory opinion requested, or (3) other reasonable grounds exist for not taking action. If the Commission decides to so act, it shall state its reasons.

(4) Confidentiality.

a. Requests for advisory opinions will be reviewed in open session unless, upon review by the Commission chair or vice chair, it is determined that the matter would be more appropriately treated as an inquiry under subsection (c) hereof and pursuant to G.S. § 1-82a.

b. Requests for advisory opinions that are treated as inquiries under subsection (c) hereof will be reviewed in closed session, except upon the request of the person who is the subject of the inquiry.

c. Advisory opinions for matters not treated as inquiries under subsection (c) hereof will be made available for public inspection by delivery to the town clerk's office.

(c) Inquiries:

(1) Initiation.

a. Any member of the public may submit an inquiry asking whether a current official, consultant or employee has failed to comply with the Code or asking about the appropriateness of conduct of a particular Town office, agency, or consultant.

b. The Commission may itself initiate an inquiry regarding a possible violation of the Code.

c. Individuals initiating an inquiry must do so by completing a form, available through the Glastonbury Town Clerk's office or through the town's web site at www.glastonbury-ct.gov. The initiating individual must sign the form under penalty of false statement. The form must contain a description of the relevant facts in sufficient detail so that the Commission and any person who is the subject of the inquiry can reasonably be expected to understand the nature of the allegations.

d. Inquiries must be addressed in a sealed envelope to the Commission, c/o the Glastonbury Town Clerk, 2155 Main Street, Town Hall, Glastonbury, Connecticut, who will date stamp, but not open, the envelope and forward same promptly to the chair or vice chair of the Commission.

e. The date an inquiry is received by the Town Clerk will mark the official date of receipt for purposes of deadlines for decisions.

(2) Preliminary review.

a. The chair or vice chair of the Commission will conduct a preliminary review of all inquiries to determine whether the matter should be dismissed or reviewed by the entire Commission.

b. The chair or vice chair may dismiss a matter on any of these grounds:

- i. The complainant does not allege a violation of, or does not give enough information to suggest a violation of, Sec. 2-60 through 2-66 of the Code.
- ii. The person who is the subject of the inquiry is a minor.
- iii. The person who is the subject of the inquiry is no longer an official, employee, or consultant of the town.
- iv. The matter occurred more than three (3) years earlier or before the enactment of the Code by the Town of Glastonbury.
- v. The Commission has already taken action on the matter.

c. If a matter is dismissed by the chair or vice chair after a preliminary review, the chair or vice chair will notify the complainant within five (5) business days, by regular mail, of the reasons for the dismissal.

d. If a matter is dismissed by the chair or vice chair after a preliminary review, no further action by the Commission, including notice to the respondent(s), is necessary.

e. Complainants may appeal a dismissal by the chair or vice chair by filing with the Town Clerk a new inquiry form that contains additional evidence that would warrant review by the entire Commission.

(3) Notice.

a. Within five (5) business days of the Town Clerk's receipt of the inquiry or initiation of an independent inquiry, the chair or vice chair will notify the respondent(s) by regular mail and will provide the person with a copy of the completed form and the Code. The Commission will confirm by regular mail to the person who initiates an inquiry that it was received by the Commission.

b. In the event that an inquiry contains allegations against multiple respondents, the chair or vice chair must notify each respondent individually. Respondents are subject to the confidentiality provisions of Sec. 2-60 and Sec. 2-69(c)(7) of the Code.

c. Respondents may file a written response with the chair of the Commission within ten (10) business days after receiving the notice. In response to allegations against multiple respondents, respondents may respond individually or collectively.

(4) Proceedings.

a. Unless the inquiry previously was dismissed by action of the chair or vice chair pursuant to Section 2-69(c)(2) above, the chair will present the inquiry and any response received from the subject to the Commission at its next regular meeting or in a special meeting held after receipt of the inquiry, the mailing of notice to the subject, and the passage of at least ten (10) additional business days.

b. The Commission will meet one (1) or more times in closed session from which the public is excluded to review the inquiry and to determine whether or not there exists probable cause that the Code has been violated. In those sessions, it may decide to: (1) seek additional information, (2) create a subcommittee of at least two (2) Commission members to make a recommendation for consideration by the full Commission, (3) proceed to investigate the relevant facts and issues in order to render a decision, (4) decline to review the matter further, pursuant to subsection (c)(5) hereof, (5) endeavor to resolve the matter by convening a confidential meeting that includes the individual who is the subject of the inquiry and others relevant to the issue, (6) make a finding of probable cause and treat the matter as a complaint under subsection (d) hereof, and/or (7) make a finding of no probable cause. If the Commission proceeds under steps (1), (2), (3), or (5) above, it will establish a schedule of meetings for consideration of the inquiry, subject to the provisions of subsection (c)(4)(a) hereof.

c. A finding of probable cause means that based on a review of the available information the Commission determines that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the respondent engaged in prohibited conduct outlined in Sec. 2-60 through 2-66 of the Code.

(5) The Commission may decline to continue to review a matter on any of these grounds:

a. The alleged facts do not evidence the existence of probable cause of a violation of Sec. 2-60 through 2-66 of the Code.

b. The matter is judged to be vexatious, frivolous, groundless, or brought for the purpose of harassment. A vexatious matter is one that lacks any serious purpose or value or that is designed to cause disruption or annoyance.

c. The person who is the subject of the matter has already taken corrective action and the Commission believes the action taken was appropriate in the circumstances and the matter should not be pursued.

d. There are other reasonable grounds for not taking action.

(6) Decisions.

a. As expeditiously as possible but in any event within one hundred twenty (120) days after the meeting at which the Town Clerk received the inquiry form, the Commission will decide that (1) the inquiry requires no further action because it was resolved or did not require further review under subsection (c)(5) hereof, or (2) probable cause exists that a violation of the Code occurred, in which case the inquiry will be treated as a complaint under subsection (d) hereof. The Commission may extend the time for decision if circumstances justify a delay.

b.No finding of the existence of probable cause may be made except upon the vote of at least four (4) members of the Commission.

c.Within five (5) business days after making a decision under this subsection (c), the Commission will inform in writing both complainants and respondents of its decision and its reasons for the decision. It shall be sufficient that the Commission cite as a reason for its decision any of the reasons enumerated in section 2-69(c)(5), above.

a. If the Commission does not make a finding of probable cause, then the inquiry and the record of the Commission's investigation shall remain confidential, except upon the request of the respondent. If the inquiry alleged violations by multiple respondents, then the request to release information must be made by all respondents.

b. The Commission may publish decisions in whole or in part if it decides that publication would serve the public interest and publication can be made in such a way as to protect the personal identity and privacy of persons who were the subject of any evaluation of a possible violation of the Code.

(d)Complaints:

a.After conducting an investigation of any inquiry under subsection (c) hereof, if the Commission finds probable cause exists, then it will make public by providing to the Town Clerk its findings and its record of the investigation not later than five (5) business days after its decision, except it may postpone public release of the record for up to fourteen (14) days for the purpose of resolving the matter with the person who is the subject of the inquiry. If no resolution is reached, the Commission will proceed in the manner described in this subsection (d).

b.The findings and record of the investigation shall include: (1) the inquiry; (2) evidence received or considered; (3) a reference to the particular section of the Code involved; and (4) a short and plain statement of the Commission's reason for finding probable cause.

c.Any member of the public who desires to file a complaint against a current officer, official, consultant or employee for allegedly violating the Code must first pursue the matter as an inquiry under subsection (c) hereof.

(2)Public hearings.

If the Commission decides, after its investigation under subsection (c) hereof, that probable cause of a violation of the Code exists, it will conduct a public hearing to determine whether or not a violation occurred. At the hearing, the person who is the subject of the hearing will have the right to be represented by legal counsel, to present evidence and witnesses and compel attendance of witnesses and the production of books, documents, records and papers, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses and inspect and copy relevant and material records, papers and documents not in such person's possession. Not later than ten (10) days before the start of the hearing, the Commission will provide the person with a list of its intended witnesses. The Commission will make a record of the proceedings.

(3) Powers and conduct of hearings.

a. For the hearing, the Commission will have the power to administer oaths, question witnesses, consider oral and documentary evidence, subpoena witnesses under procedural rules adopted by the Commission as regulations in accordance with the provisions of G.S. Chapter 54 (Uniform Administrative Procedure Act) to compel attendance before the Commission, and require the production for examination by the Commission of any books and papers which it deems relevant in any matter under investigation or in question.

b. The Commission may require witnesses to testify under oath administered by the presiding officer or any other duly qualified person. The hearings shall be recorded and/or transcribed.

c. Hearings are not governed by the legal rules of evidence and any information relevant to the matter may be considered. The Commission will respect the rules of privilege recognized by the law. When a hearing will be expedited and the interests of the parties will not be prejudiced substantially, any part of the evidence may be received in written form. Documentary evidence may be received in the form of copies or excerpts, if the original is not readily available, and, upon request, parties and the Commission will be given an opportunity to compare the copy with the original.

(4) Decisions.
